

CRUSH WINE

The Australian Wine Cellar

Crush Wine was started in 2006 by Glen Fox, as a specialist shop for premium Australian wines. As Glen had to return to his native Australia in June 2008, Crush was taken over by Max and Lyn, who went from being regular customers to becoming the mildly stunned owners of a rather more wine than even they could drink, as well as incidentally coming into possession of a Belgium company, 447 used corks and a large Australian flag.

With over 200 different wines available from 7 – 60 €, Crush has the most comprehensive range of Australian wine in Europe. However, with over 2,000 wineries in Australia there remains a seemingly inexhaustible supply of new wines to bring in, not to mention rather a lot from New Zealand that are very appealing. The breadth and depth of the range of wines offered by Crush will be steadily increased as we track down new supply sources or wines.

The very popular tastings with food that are a feature of Crush will be continuing, changing the wines each month. Crush also offers tastings in a similar format to groups or for events, either within Crush or at the venue of your choice.

Our opening hours are 12:00 – 19:00 from Tuesday to Friday, and sometimes from 14:00 – 18:00 on Saturdays (call to check we're open). Or for the lazy or well-organised, just call an order through for delivery on 02 5026697 or 0479 223370 or e-mail to info@crushwine.eu. Our wine list and other details can be found on our website (www.crushwine.eu), which will be re-emerging as an e-commerce site very soon, now we can organize delivery to most EU countries.

We look forward to seeing you at Crush!
